Founded in 2011, Brad is the Managing Broker and founder of HK Brokerage, Inc. HK is a full service residential and commercial real estate brokerage company. In addition to brokerage, Brad is an Attorney at Narvid Scott, LLP, located in Sherman Oaks, CA. His practice centers on real estate, engaging in both litigation and transactional work. Brad represents developers, syndicators, investors, and funds in a wide range of matters including acquisitions, dispositions, syndications, fund formations, development, leasing, financing, and foreclosures. His clients range from individual investors, corporations, and institutions across all asset classes of real estate; residential, retail, office, industrial, and hospitality.

Raised in Los Angeles, a graduate of UCLA and Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, Brad is prepared to meet the challenges in today's real estate market. Brad's enthusiasm for sales and a detail-oriented approach, his legal background and familiarity with Los Angeles neighborhoods, make him the right choice for the seasoned real estate investor and the first time home buyer alike.

Brad's understanding of the fluctuating market gives his clients the most current information on which to draw when making important real estate decisions. Brad creates marketing plans specific to each client's needs, ensuring that each transaction is as positive as possible in his clients' favor. Additionally, the brokerage is full service and has created a network of individuals who can assist and expedite loan acquisition, home inspections, appraisals, insurance, and home improvement projects.
